

ACCESSIBILITY STATEMENT

Effective Date: June 1, 2026

TopUSLawFirms.com ("Top U.S. Law Firms," "we," "our," or "us") is committed to providing a website that is accessible and usable for all individuals, including people with disabilities.

We believe access to information should be available to everyone and are continually working to improve the accessibility and usability of our website and digital services.

Our Commitment

Top U.S. Law Firms strives to ensure that our website is accessible to visitors with diverse abilities and needs.

We seek to provide an inclusive online experience that allows users to:

- Access directory information;
- Verify recognition badges;
- Search for legal professionals;
- Read educational content;
- Submit inquiries; and
- Navigate website features effectively.

Accessibility is an ongoing effort, and we continuously evaluate opportunities to improve the user experience for all visitors.

Accessibility Standards

We endeavor to design, develop, and maintain our website in a manner consistent with generally recognized accessibility best practices.

Our goal is to work toward substantial conformance with the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) 2.1 Level AA, which are internationally recognized standards for digital accessibility.

These guidelines help make web content more accessible to people with disabilities, including individuals who use:

- Screen readers;
 - Keyboard navigation;
 - Voice recognition software;
 - Magnification tools;
 - Alternative input devices; and
 - Other assistive technologies.

Accessibility Features

Depending on the functionality of the website, accessibility features may include:

- Clear page structure and headings;
- Keyboard-accessible navigation;
- Descriptive link text;
- Alternative text for meaningful images;
- Readable color contrast;
- Responsive design for mobile and tablet devices;
- Resizable text support;
- Consistent navigation elements; and
- Compatibility with commonly used assistive technologies.

We continue to evaluate and improve accessibility features as technologies and standards evolve.

Ongoing Improvements

Accessibility is an ongoing process.

As part of our commitment, we may periodically:

- Review website accessibility;
- Test website functionality;
- Update content and design practices;
- Improve compatibility with assistive technologies;
- Address reported accessibility concerns; and

- Implement enhancements based on evolving accessibility standards.

While we strive to provide accessible content, some areas of the website may occasionally require updates or improvements.

Third-Party Content

Certain areas of the website may contain content, software, services, or links provided by third parties.

Examples may include:

- Embedded media;
- Maps;
- External forms;
- Social media integrations;
- Analytics tools;
- Advertising content; and
- Third-party websites.

Because these services are controlled by third parties, Top U.S. Law Firms cannot guarantee the accessibility of third-party content.

However, we encourage our vendors and partners to support accessibility standards whenever possible.

Feedback and Assistance

We welcome feedback regarding the accessibility of our website.

If you experience difficulty accessing any content, feature, functionality, document, or service available on TopUSLawFirms.com, we encourage you to contact us.

When reaching out, please provide:

- A description of the issue;
- The webpage or feature involved;
- The device and browser being used (if known); and
- Any assistive technology being used (if applicable).

Providing this information helps us investigate and address concerns more effectively.

Alternative Access

If you encounter an accessibility barrier while using our website, we will make reasonable efforts to provide the information, service, or assistance you seek through an alternative communication method where feasible.

Our goal is to ensure that all users have meaningful access to the information and resources available through Top U.S. Law Firms.
