

ATTORNEY ADVERTISING & RECOGNITION DISCLOSURE

Effective Date: June 1, 2026

Top U.S. Law Firms ("TopUSLawFirms.com," "we," "our," or "us") is committed to transparency regarding attorney advertising, directory listings, recognitions, badges, rankings, and verification records published through our Platform.

This disclosure is intended to provide important information to consumers, attorneys, law firms, referral sources, and regulatory authorities regarding the nature of our services.

Independent Legal Directory

Top U.S. Law Firms is an independent legal directory and recognition platform.

We are not:

- A law firm;
- A lawyer referral service;
- A state bar association;
- A governmental agency;
- A regulatory authority;
- A legal certification organization; or
- An accrediting body.

Our purpose is to provide information about attorneys and law firms and to recognize firms that satisfy criteria established by our organization.

Attorney Advertising Notice

Certain content appearing on this Platform may constitute attorney advertising under the laws and professional conduct rules of one or more jurisdictions.

Law firms and attorneys are solely responsible for ensuring that their listings, profiles, advertisements, badges, recognition references, and other content comply with applicable attorney advertising rules in every jurisdiction where they practice.

Users should not assume that any information published on this Platform has been reviewed or approved by a state bar association or regulatory authority.

No Legal Advice

Information published on this Platform is provided for informational purposes only.

Nothing on this website should be interpreted as:

- Legal advice;
- Legal counsel;
- A legal opinion;
- A recommendation to hire a particular attorney;
- A guarantee of legal outcomes; or
- A substitute for consultation with qualified legal counsel.

Individuals seeking legal assistance should independently evaluate attorneys and law firms before retaining services.

Recognition Program Disclosure

Top U.S. Law Firms may award recognitions, distinctions, rankings, badges, honors, or other acknowledgments to attorneys and law firms.

Recognition may be based upon factors that include:

- Professional reputation;
- Publicly available information;
- Industry standing;
- Client service considerations;
- Practice focus;
- Community involvement;
- Independent research;
- Peer recognition;

- Editorial review; and
- Other factors determined by Top U.S. Law Firms.

Recognition criteria may evolve over time as our methodology develops.

Recognition Is Not Certification

Recognition by Top U.S. Law Firms does not constitute:

- Board certification;
- Legal specialization certification;
- Government endorsement;
- State bar approval;
- Accreditation;
- Licensing;
- Professional competency certification; or
- Any guarantee of legal ability.

Unless expressly stated otherwise, no recognition issued by Top U.S. Law Firms should be interpreted as certification of expertise in any legal field.

No Guarantee of Results

Recognition, directory inclusion, rankings, badges, or verification status do not guarantee:

- Future performance;
- Legal outcomes;
- Client satisfaction;
- Professional superiority;
- Quality of representation; or
- Success in any legal matter.

Past accomplishments do not predict future results.

Every legal matter is unique and outcomes depend upon numerous factors beyond an attorney's control.

Rankings and Recognition Methodology

Any rankings, recognitions, awards, badges, distinctions, or similar acknowledgments published by Top U.S. Law Firms reflect our editorial judgment and methodology.

Such recognitions are opinions based on our evaluation criteria and are not statements of objective fact regarding legal superiority.

Reasonable people may disagree with rankings, recognitions, or evaluations.

Verification Disclosure

The purpose of our verification system is to provide transparency regarding recognition status.

A verification record generally confirms that:

- Recognition was issued by Top U.S. Law Firms;
- Recognition remains active;
- A badge is authentic; and
- A profile corresponds to an identified law firm or attorney.

Verification does not imply:

- Certification;
 - Endorsement;
 - Accreditation;
 - Government approval; or
 - Superior legal qualifications.

Badge Usage Disclosure

Recognized firms may receive permission to display official recognition badges.

Display of a badge indicates only that recognition was awarded through Top U.S. Law Firms and that recognition was active at the time of issuance or verification.

Badges should not be interpreted as:

- Certification of expertise;
 - A guarantee of legal competence;
 - A guarantee of outcomes;
 - State bar endorsement; or
 - Government approval.

No Referral Relationship

Top U.S. Law Firms does not refer clients to attorneys.

The Platform provides information intended to assist users in locating and evaluating legal professionals.

Users remain solely responsible for selecting legal counsel.

No attorney-client relationship is created through:

- Use of this website;
 - Submission of forms;
 - Viewing profiles;
 - Clicking badges; or
 - Accessing verification records.

Jurisdictional Variations

Attorney advertising rules vary significantly among states, territories, and jurisdictions.

Recognition, rankings, badges, profile content, and advertising materials may be subject to different legal requirements depending on where an attorney is licensed or practices law.

Attorneys and law firms are solely responsible for compliance with all applicable rules governing attorney advertising and professional conduct.

Consumer Responsibility

Consumers are encouraged to conduct independent research before hiring any attorney or law firm.

Factors consumers may wish to consider include:

- Experience;
- Practice area concentration;
- Licensing status;
- Professional discipline history;
- References;
- Reviews;
- Consultation discussions; and
- Other information relevant to their legal needs.

Recognition by Top U.S. Law Firms should be considered only one factor among many when evaluating legal representation.

Editorial Independence

Top U.S. Law Firms maintains editorial independence in its recognition and publishing decisions.

Participation in advertising, sponsorships, enhanced profiles, or other commercial programs does not guarantee recognition, rankings, or awards.

Recognition decisions are made independently according to our established standards and review processes.
